MAKE YOUR MONEY FIGHT==BUY A VICTORY BOND

VICTORY BOND CAMPAIGN PROVING STRIVING SUCCESS

We have been informed that the Wainwright District, which includes all towns from Irma to Chauvin has been given an allotment of $500,000 and we are pleased to inform our readers that this campaign has started out far ahead of our greatest hopes. The first shot fired brought down at Wainwright $300,000, at Edgerton $250,000, at Irma $400,000, at Ribstone $400,000. Meetings have been arranged for at Wainwright, Chauvin, Irma and Heath, and it is to be hoped that they will be largely and enthusiastically attended.

The Victory Loan Canvasser will be calling on you presently. Don't tell him to come back again just tell him "Yes". Everyone should believe in Canada and its institutions and should be eager to shake of the money they have made in Canada in the hands of Canada. The fact that the resources and wealth of Canada are behind the "I promise to pay" of Canada is proof that the investment is Gilt Edge.

Farmers should not forget that the money raised by this Loan is to be spent in Canada in the purchases, amongst other things, of the products of the farm for the feeding of our troops and allies and also, don't forget that the loan will bring you 5 per cent interest paid half yearly.

Secretary R. H. Watson is at his office next door to Cole Stewart's Barber Shop and reports that he has all kinds of advertising matter there and will gladly give you any information you may require regarding the Loan. What Neutrals are thinking of the Loan.

We Canadians and Americans are all so immersed in the war and its being successfully carried on, that we seldom stop to enquire what Neutrals think about it. We can talk about the Canadians and the Americans being on one side and the Germans on the other, but we seldom trouble to place the Neutrals. A little chance which tends to show where the Neutrals stand came to light last week when a man who is a Swede by birth, walked into a newspaper office and began inquiring about the Loan, as he wanted to buy for himself and for his wife. He was going to make her a present of the Bonds when Christmas came around. Having obtained the information he went to the secretary of the Loan campaign and paid his money, with the request that his name should head the local list. "You know" he said "I am too old to fight but I want to show the people that if I can't fight I can do my share by backing the country with my money."

Here is a grand spirit, the spirit of a man who has some idea of what he owes to the country which has furnished him with a home and a good living. People will know just where he stands; will you let them know where you stand by a similar action?

The Provincial cabinet at its meeting yesterday afternoon decided to make a grant of $800,000 to the Alberta branch of the Patriotic Fund.

Payment will commence Jan. 1, 1918, and the contribution of the government will be paid by monthly instalments.

BERT L. PERRY DONATES TROPHY

Mr. Bert L. Perry, of the Wainwright Electric Co. has informed the curling club that he will donate a "mug" for competition among local rinks this winter. With this cup added to the five the club now holds, they have a promising outlook this year.

Intending curlers should hand in their names at once to Secretary Zinkan. It has also been suggested that a ladies club be formed this year. This is an excellent suggestion as towns on the G. T. P. and T. N. R. have proved that the ladies make good curlers. Will some lady take this matter up with Secretary Zinkan.

NEPHEW OF ED BAYNTON AWARDED THE VICTORIA CROSS

Ed. Baynton of this town received the news last week that his nephew, William Baynton Butler, a private in the W. Yorks Regiment, was awarded the highest honors that a soldier can win, the Victoria Cross.

It was given to him for most conspicuous bravery when in charge of a Stokes gun in the trenches which were being heavily shelled and suddenly one of the fly off levers of a Stokes shell came off and fired the shell in the emplacement. But Butler picked up the shell and jumped to the entrance of the emplacement which at that moment a party of infantry were passing, he shouted to them to hurry past, as the shell was going off, and turning round placed himself between the party of men and the live shell and so held it till they were out of danger. He then threw the shell on to the parapets and took cover in the bottom of the trench. The shell exploded almost immediately on leaving his hand,

PHOTOS OF LOCAL SOLDIERS OVERSEAS REQUESTED BY GOVT.

The officer in care of the Canadian War Records has asked the "Star" to make known that it is desired to compile a complete history in photograph of the Canadians share in the war, in the same way that all other belligerent countries are compiling similar records.

It is particularly desired to obtain photographs of all officers, N.C.O.s and men who have served or are serving in the overseas military forces of Canada, and it is requested that an appeal should be made to this end through these columns.

All officers and other ranks serving overseas may find it difficult to send in their photographs and their relatives are therefore asked to send in their photograph for them.

By preference the photographs should be mounted and printed on bromide paper in order to ensure permanency. Each photograph should be accompanied by a concise record, not exceeding two or three hundred words, of the subjects military career, including date of enlistment, promotions, distinctions and so on, as this will greatly assist in obtaining a full and accurate record of all concerned.

In addition it is desired to collect all photographs dealing with the mobilization, training and departure of Troops together with pictures illustrating reviews, sports, presentations, etc. Any photograph of this nature is regarded as a document of historical importance, and it is hoped that the possessors of all such photographs will deem it their duty to send either the original or copies, which will ultimately be placed in the Permanent Public Archives of the Dominion.

All photographs, which will be acknowledged, should be addressed to the Officer in charge Canadian War Records, 14 Clifford St. Pond St. London, W. I. Eng.

greatly damaging the trench. By extreme good luck Pte. Butler was contrived only. Undoubtedly his great presence of mind and disregard of his own life saved the lives of the officers and men in the emplacement, and the party which was passing at the time, which was passing at the time.

NEW NAMES

When a child in London was christened "Leppelina" because she was born on the night of a rain, it looked as if the limit in war names had been reached. But the Edmonton Journal points out that now comes word from Guildford, England that a little girl there has been given the name of "Tankie".

A Sale of Fancy Work and Home Cooking will be held by the W. A. of St. Thomas Church on Saturday November 24th. Sale starts at 2 p.m. Place of sale will be announced later.

ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT IS TIED UP FOR A WEEK

Upon the ruling of the Provincial Boiler Inspector, who was requested to give the Power Plant commencing night service, there will have to be some repairs made to the boiler before the Department will pass same for steady operation. The Inspector advises the company that while he would allow the temporary operation of the boiler as it is, the repairs as he suggests are those that will eventually have to be completed with before he could give them any assurance as to the satisfactory operation under continuous service.

While the company regrets the shut down that the repairs necessitate it feels satisfied that it is better to lose a week's operation at this time and put the plant in shape so they can commence night operation and continue same throughout the winter than to start up and not have that assurance.

NEW INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING VICTORY BONDS, IS ISSUED

The following announcement has been made from Ottawa:—The Finance Minister of Canada has issued a new instruction in connection with the Victory Bonds, which will be of much benefit and importance to many small investors. He has decided to grant the privilege of the registration of all bonds, that is to say, that bonds of all denominations, including the $50 bond, may be registered as to principal and as to principal and interest.

In previous loans the privilege of registration was necessarily confined to bonds of the larger denomination, such as $1,000 bonds or more. Bonds of lower denominations were issued as bearer bonds, with coupons attached, and while carrying equal benefits as to principal and interest were liable to being lost by the owners. Under the privilege now given by the Finance Minister, the buyer of any bond (whatever the denomination), may have it registered, in which case the interest will be paid by cheque, and the bond, if lost, may be replaced after proper evidence has been shown.

It is believed that this privilege will be greatly appreciated by many thousands of small investors, who will thus be assured of the absolute safety of their investment even against fire or carelessness or any other accidental cause of loss. This improvement in the issue will involve extra work upon the Department of Finance, but Sir Thomas White considers that its benefits will more than offset the labor involved.

BUDGET OF NEWSY ITEMS FROM THE TOWN OF RIBSTONE

The party on the street wants to know if there should be any reference made to the Union Government when soliciting subscriptions for Victory Bonds and why. Better let Victory Bonds stand on their own merits. They'll sell better.

riding the district, that is in motion. The riding of the district is a confirmation of a sudden election campaign. We are stating this not because we would wish to see Mr Blair nominated but that we want to see a nomination from the Labour Party. The elders of this riding who support the Union government, viewing the situation as it now stands and as it develops more and more, they must present a united front if they are to succeed at all and this is best obtained by putting into the field the best man available. More than that, the best man available will have to get next to the people from one end of the riding to the other, organise it and see to it that that organisation will stand the shock of the election. I do not want to hear any of us say that such and such a man will make an acceptable candidate, but that candidate is order to win the election. It is the people and this is a task that in our opinion cannot be accomplished here between now and election day as the riding of such a variety as we are now riding. It is a task that is dangerous precedent to swap horses when you are crossing the proverbial river. The issue and only issue in this campaign is the west of Scotland.

* WISE AND OTHERWISE *

"What is your opinion of this new cure? Do you think walking through the grass will make a person healthy?" asked the boarding-house lady at the dinner-table.

"Well, it seems to have made this beef pretty tough," replied the boarder, trying hard to cut his steak.

When the enemy in the shape of a Zeppelin landed at Cranlington there was much consternation. The old man, however, proved the exception, for while the bombs were being dropped not many yards away he calmly sat and perused the evening paper. When the noise had subsided he rose from his seat and dryly remarked:—

"I think I'll have a look into the greenhouse to see if that last crack hasn't knocked some green dy off the rose bushes, for they've been rare pests lately, I'm sure."

A Clergyman had taught an old man in his parish to read, and found him an apt pupil. Calling at the cottage some time after, he found only the wife at home.

"How's John?" asked he.

"He is well, thank you," said his wife.

"How does he get on with his reading?"

"Nicely, sir."

"Ah, I suppose he can read his Bible comfortably now?"

"Bible, sir? Bless-you, he was out of the Bible and into the sporting papers long ago."

Mr. W. Crooks, M. P., recently told a little story of Eastlake and his.

He was once, he said, at a dinner given to poor children at Poplar. Many of the children were so poor they had never seen a knife and fork.

Standing behind two little girls, he overheard the following dialogue:—

"I say, Jane, ain't this orf right?"

"Yus, it is orf right," was the reply, "but I'm sorry for one thing—I've had me stays mended."

Mr. Tom Wing, M. P., for the Houghton & Co. Spring Division, tells a good story of an encounter.

It was in private of the Wearside Brigade Artillery.

"I hope they have made a man of you," said the genial M. P. to the private, and he received the reply:—

"I will tell you what they have done. They have taken the lump off my back and put it on my chest, and it's now much easier to carry."

In a certain town in the South of Scotland there dwelt a policeman with unusually large feet.

One night, after he had retired to rest, he was disturbed by a noise at the back of his house and on going out to ascertain the cause of it he found that his garden was overrun by a number of boys.

Robert angrily demanded what they wanted, and received the following reply from one of the urchins as he disappeared over the garden wall:—

"Oh, we're hikin' for one o' your an'ld butes to mak' a rabbit house wi'."

A Lady, selecting a hat at a milliner's, asked, cautiously:—

"Is there anything about these feathers that might bring me into trouble with the Bird Protection Society?"

"Oh, no, madam," said the milliner.

"But did they not belong to some bird?" persisted the lady.

"Well, madam," returned the milliner, pleasantly, "these feathers are the feathers of a bow! and the bow! you know, madam, seen 'as 'ow fond 'e is of mice, is more of a cat than a bird."

At a cattle show a fellow who was making himself conspicuous at last broke out:—

"Call these here prize cattle? Why, they ain't nothing to what our folks raised. My father raised the biggest calf of any man round our parts."

"Don't doubt it," remarked a bystander, "and the noisiest."

EXCELLENT SHOWS AT ELITE THEATRE THUR, FRI, SAT,

In "Ashes of Embers" in which the celebrated Pauline Frederick is starred by the Famous Players Film Company on the Paramount Program, the beautiful emotional actress does some of the most remarkable acting of her career. In this dramatic production which was staged under the direction of Joseph Kaufman, Miss Frederick plays the dual roles of twin sisters, the one a drudge and the other a butterfly who later develops into a conscienceless woman.

Agnes, the drudge, is the cashier of a department store and her sister, Laura, devotes her energies to the cultivation of her voice—the bills being paid by her less talented sister. A young architect named Leigh is in love with Laura but she plays with him as she plays with everybody else that suits her purposes, among them a middle aged millionaire. Deciding to lure the millionaire into a proposal at a big dinner, she demands money for a new gown from her sister, who replies that she has none. Driven to desperation at the thought of her plans going awry, she visits her sister at the department store and finally steals the money from her sister's cash drawer.

While Agnes goes to jail for the theft, Laura accepts the millionaire and marries him at once—before he can change his mind. Having captured the millionaire, she proceeds to flirt outrageously with Leigh until her husband calls in his lawyer, Marvin, to institute divorce proceedings. Laura captivates Marvin and she decides to attempt to save her. Agnes is let out of jail and Marvin conceives the idea of getting her to compromise herself so that the old "mistaken identity" plea can be worked in behalf of Laura, as it can be shown, of course, that it was really Agnes who was seen before. Agnes is forced to undertake the job by threat of imprisonment if she refuses.

Leigh meanwhile has taken to drink to console himself and continually calls for Laura. Agnes, not realizing who "Laura" is, decides to go to Mrs. Dauriston and persuade her to come to Leigh. Laura refuses to go and Agnes, by her devotion, cures him of drink and finally marries him. But she is jealous of his love when he gets a commission to build a house in Newport where he meets Laura again. She tries to captivate him again but the timely arrival of Agnes saves him from her. Marvin, meanwhile, has gone stark mad with frenzy over Laura's duplicity and he shoots her, leaving Agnes and Leigh alone in their new-found love.

In support of Miss Frederick there appear Earl Fox, Frank Losee, Maggie Holloway Fisher, Herbert J. Frank and Jay Wilson. This beautiful picture will be shown in the Elite Theatre on Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

"THE EYE OF GOD"

Olaf has spent his life on an ill-paying ranch. He is of a morose and ugly disposition, greatly loved by his wife, Ana, but he cares nothing for her. Ana goes some distance, to nurse her sister who has become suddenly ill.

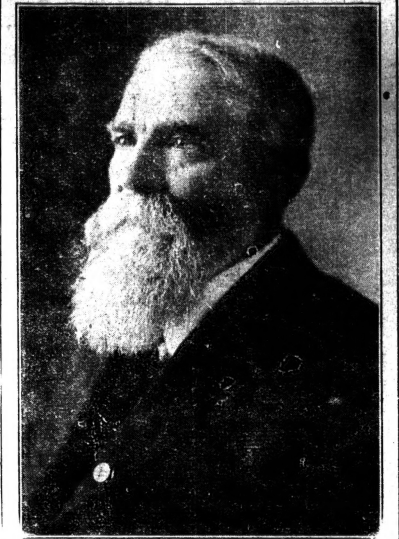

Two women find that there is no train to take them on their journey and seek shelter in Olaf's house. He reluctantly consents to let them remain for the night, but when he finds in the presence of a refined and handsome woman he is deeply impressed.

The women sleeps in the only bedroom, with her maid guarding the door, reposing on a lounge. In the night Olaf descends to the bedroom through a rear door that leads to a closet opening into the bedroom where Renie is lightly sleeping. Olaf kisses the woman, she awakens, but Olaf makes good his escape before she sees by what exit he departs.

Later on a storm sends two men to Olaf's house for shelter. One of the men will soon become Renie's husband. The men display a large

"The imperative duty of all the people of Canada today in regard to the war is its continued and vigorous prosecution by the maintenance in unimpaired strength at the front of our fighting forces, and the taking of all steps necessary to secure required reinforcements for the Canadian Expeditionary Force."

I stand for increasing the pay of our boys in the trenches, and everything material or otherwise that we can do toward repaying the debt of gratitude we owe them for the great sacrifices they have made. Bona pensions to all our soldiers support for their dependents, which must be continued, especially to the widows of our brave men who have given their lives in France and Flanders. We must also make special provision for the soldiers' orphans who are unable to provide for themselves. As Honorary President of the United Farmers of Alberta, and after a lifetime of effort to advance agricultural interests, I sincerely appreciate the fact that the Western Liberals have incorporated so many of the Organized Farmers demands in their platform, and shall take pleasure in doing everything in my power to have them embodied in the laws of our country. I also endorse the remaining parts of the platform put out by the Dominion Council of Agriculture, and if I am elected, will use all reasonable means to champion the interest of the farmers of Canada, thereby promoting the best interests of the whole of the people of Canada.

sum of money and much valuable jewelry. Olaf puts one man to sleep in the bedroom, while the other decides to watch at the door, as did the maid. The man on watch is Renie's fiancé.

In the night Olaf descends by the concealed stairs, enters the bedroom and shoots the man, who is sleeping there. Thus Olaf gains possession of the treasure and at the trial the companion of the dead man is found guilty of murder and robbery.

Immediately the money is in his possession Olaf is conscience stricken and the eye of God seems always to be upon him. The strange apparition so affects his wife that she leaves Olaf, and finally, he too cannot remain longer in the homestead and goes out to see the world.

But the eye of God is still upon him and, try as he may, he cannot escape its searching beams. In his wanderings Olaf again meets the woman whom he had given shelter to and his old infatuation takes possession of him. He is bewitched by the woman and she plays upon him at her will.

How this woman, assisted by the eye of God, preyed upon Olaf until he confessed, thus liberating her intended husband from dur, ance vile, and bring the penalty of his crime upon Olaf, the murderer, will be displayed in gripping photoplay at the Elite Theatre on Thursday of this week with Tyrone Power playing Olaf and Lois Weber appearing in the role of his nemesis.

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying.

—they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting, —the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make?
What answer will you make?

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

To Wilhelm Von Hohenhausen, King of Prussia, Emperor of all Germany, and Envoy of the Almighty God.

My Dear Wilhelm,
I can call you by that familiar name for I have always been very close to you, far closer than you could ever think. I have known you for a very long time and I have shaped your destiny for my own ends.

In olden days I had some rough necks to do my dirty work, but in these modern days a classier demon was needed and as I know your blood I picked you as my special agent to place on earth an annex to hell. I gave you abnormal ambitions, also an over-supply of egotism that you might not discover your own failings: I twisted your mind to that of a man, a most dangerous character placed in power. I gave you the power of a hypnotist and a certain magnetic force that you might sway your people. I am responsible for that deformed arm that hangs by your side, for your crippled condition embitters your life and destroys all noble impulses that might cause anxiety. I placed in your soul a hatred for all things English, for of all nations, I hate England most, wherever England plants her flag she brings order out of chaos and the hatred cross follows the Union Jack. She is the great civilizer of the globe and I hate her. I planted in your soul a great hatred for your mother because she was English. Recent history proves how well my work was done. It broke your mother's heart, but I gained my purpose. You cast my ambitious eyes toward the Mediterranean Egypt, India and the Dardanelles, and you began your great railroad to Bagdad, but the ambitious Arch Duke and his more ambitious wife stood in your way and you planned their assassination, and all hell smiled when it saw how you saddled the blame on Serbia. I saw you set sails for Jords of Norway and knew you would prove an alibi. How cleverly done just like your Royal grandfather who also secured an assassin to remove old King Frederick of Denmark and then robbed that country of two provinces that gave Germany an opportunity to become the naval power.

Murder is dirty work but it takes a man like you to do it and get away with it. You set the whole world on fire and the bells of hell were ringing. I saw you rope on Belgium, the beginning of a perfect hell on earth. I saw your treachery to friend and foe. I have seen the destruction of all things beautiful in Belgium, France and Poland of Jew and Gentile alike. You have killed and robbed people of friendly nations. You are a liar a hypocrite and a bluffer of the highest magnitude, you are a part of me yet you pose as a personal friend of God. Ah Wilhelm you are a wonder but my teachings did not stop with you but have extended to the whole German nation. I confess my satanic soul grew sick and thert and then I knew the pupil had become the master. I am a back number, and my dear Wilhelm I abdicate in your favor. The great key of hell will be turned over to you. The gavel that has struck the doom of damned souls ever since time began is yours. I am satisfied with what I have done. But my abdication in your favor is for the very best interests of hell—in future I am at your majesty's service.

Affectionately and sincerely yours,
Lucifer H. Satan

My Best Friend

Is a mother who has once used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for she makes a point of telling other mothers about it, and they pass the news around. This has made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a household favorite through the world.

Just ask some mother who has used it what she thinks of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—She will tell you that it enables her to get her children through the winter without serious illness from coughs, colds or croup.

"Gentle" Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
She will tell you that it is as thoroughly reliable for the youngest child as for the oldest members of the family. You can give it to the baby, the children going to school, or take it yourself, always with the same result—a quick relief.

Yours for Health—Gentle Chamberlain's
